CANADA

All the polls say otherwise, showing how totally out-of-touch Trudeau is from the Canadian people.

Canadians are not asking for more immigration – something the Trudeau government is ignoring as they push a massive increase bringing levels up to 340,000 per year. So, Trudeau is not only being dishonest, he is being undemocratic, by purposely pushing an immigration agenda Canadians oppose and then lying through his teeth about it.

Justin Trudeau's Indian Trip Keeps Getting Worse
by Daniel Greenfield

Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has often been dubbed Canada's Obama. Nah, he's more comparable to Joe Kennedy III or Israel's Yair Lapid, a young, good-looking, empty-headed silver spooner who is only in the running for anything because of his last name. Trudeau's dorky Excellent Indian Vacation helped make that clear. And it's just the gift that keeps on giving.

Silly costumes were the least problem with Justin Trudeau's 'disaster trip' to India

Here, it was clear from the start that Trudeau came to India to score with his Sikh constituency back home — four out of the six cabinet ministers who travelled with him were Sikh, as were an overwhelming number of MPs who also travelled with him. Until the media barrage in India forced the Canadian side to change tack, Trudeau was not even ready to meet Amarinder Singh, chief minister of Punjab.

Trudeau continues his India errors even after returning home by Terry Glavin

When Prime Minister Justin Trudeau departed from India on Saturday, it was hardly possible to imagine that Canada's standing in New Delhi could plummet any deeper into the abyss of humiliation than eight days of non-stop travelling gaucherie, diplomatic outrage and burlesque fiasco had already sunk it. But as things have turned out, the lurid spectacle has not yet come to anything like a merciful conclusion. This is not going away any time soon.

The social justice revolution has taken the law schools. This won't end well

The Law Society of Ontario has begun to compel its members to expressly acknowledge an obligation to promote progressive values. Individual liberties are no longer fundamental. Everyone is not subject to the same rules. The legal ground is shifting. Not all law professors endorse the path that we are on, and fortunately they can still choose what to teach in their own courses. Not all lawyers or judges agree either. Many have kept their heads. Give them credit for thinking for themselves. After all, they probably went to a Canadian law school.

This is the kind of judge Justin Trudeau wants on the court

John Norris has defended a number of terrorists and accused terrorists. In fact he seems to seek that out. A look at his website shows he acted as Omar Khadr's lawyer in one lawsuit against the Canadian government and acted as an intervener in two other cases effectively supporting Khadr's position. He acted for Suresh Sriskandarajah, a man that pled guilty to terrorism charges for helping the Tamil Tigers. Norris acted for Raed Jaser, one of the men convicted in the Via Rail plot to blow up passenger trains above the Niagara Gorge. Other notable clients include Mahmoud Jaballah, Adil Charkoui, members of the Toronto 18 and more.

Doug Saunders's "Maximum Canada" = Minimum White Canadians by Ricardo Duchesne

What drives Saunders is not Canada's economic needs but an anti-white agenda now pervasive in the West. Our lying press and disloyal financial elites are raising the same false alarms across Europe about how this continent can't be assured of an affluent future unless masses of Africans and Muslims are put on welfare payrolls. This pathological animus against European identity stands at the root of Maximum Canada.

SELLING OUT CANADIANS: Hidden In Budget, Trudeau Liberals To Give Foreign Countries – Including China – Access To Confidential Tax Info Of Canadian Citizens

The report notes the concerns of Michael Bryant – the leader of the Canadian Civil Liberties Association.

"If you can get something buried in the budget that nobody knows about, sometimes you can get something past without getting the kind of heat it deserves. The big concern is that Canada would be unwittingly participating in a star chamber investigation and prosecution of somebody in another jurisdiction, or that Canadians would in essence be thrown under the bus and information would be shared with other jurisdictions that don't have our due process and constitutional protections," said Bryant, who was also the former Attorney General of Ontario.

Spineless Trudeau Carries No Stick in a Canada/US Trade War

As a result of winning a trade war against the weak and poorly-prepared Trudeau-led Canada, the US will create many more jobs in the steel and aluminum industries on the back of Trudeau's virtue signaling, anti-jobs, anti-trade economic policies. Hence Trudeau will do nothing of substance. Trudeau will suck it up. He will take more selfies in various colorful outfits. He will blame former Conservative Prime Minister Harper. He will blame Trump. He will blame unknown rogue elements in the US government who wish to hurt Trudeau personally.

Toronto 18 terrorist will regain Canadian citizenship under new legislation introduced by Liberals

The leader of an al-Qaida-inspired plot to explode truck bombs in downtown Toronto during the morning rush hour will have his Canadian citizenship reinstated under legislation introduced by the Liberals on Thursday. Effectively, the bill means the Liberals will be returning citizenship to Zakaria Amara, ringleader of the Toronto 18 terror group, which planned al-Qaida-style violence in southern Ontario to push Canada to abandon Afghanistan.

Liberals double down on threats to regulate social media by Anthony Furey

The Trudeau Liberals are getting serious about their plans to regulate companies like Facebook and appear to be in the early stages of an action plan. "This is a challenge that is being faced by democracies around the world. We are studying other countries' approaches to see what works and what does not, what would be appropriate in a Canadian context and what — like censoring Canadians' speech — would be unacceptable."

Marine Le Pen, the French far-Right leader, was charged on Thursday for posting graphic images of atrocities by Isil jihadists on Twitter — including a photograph of the decapitated body of an American reporter. The images, tweeted in December 2015 with the caption "This is Daesh [the Arabic acronym for Isil]," included a picture of the beheaded journalist, James Foley, a man on fire in a cage and a tank driving over another victim.

EXCLUSIVE: YouTube Secretly Using SPLC To Police Videos

The SPLC has faced tough criticisms not just from conservatives but from the mainstream press as well. "At a time when the line between 'hate group' and mainstream politics is getting thinner and the need for productive civil discourse is growing more serious, fanning liberal fears, while a great opportunity for the SPLC, might be a problem for the nation," Politico Magazine's Ben Schreckinger wrote last year.

Tommy Robinson Suspended from Twitter for Stating Statistical Fact About Muslims in Grooming Gangs

The controversial activist Tommy Robinson has been suspended from Twitter for quoting research which found that nearly 90 per cent of convicted grooming gang members in the UK are Muslim. Twitter once advertised itself as a platform for free speech, but has become increasingly political and censorious, taking blue 'verification ticks' away from right-wing users and frequently banning and suspending people for sharing views the firm disagrees with – including Breitbart London Editor in Chief Raheem Kassam.

POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

WHAT A MORNING

8:00 -- I made a snowman.

8:10 -- A feminist passed by and asked me why I didn't make a snow woman.

8:15 -- So I made a snow woman as well.

8:17 -- The nanny of the neighbors complained about the snow woman's voluptuous chest.

8:20 -- The gay couple living nearby grumbled that it could have been two snowmen instead.

8:25 -- The vegans at No.12 complained about veggies are food and not to decorate snow figures.

8:28 -- I am being called a racist because the snow couple is white.

8:31 -- The Muslim gent across the road wants the snow woman to wear a headscarf.

8:35 -- A First Nations group stopped and said the project had been built on what was once their traditional lands without their consultation and approval. They want an apology and compensation.

8:40 -- Someone calls the cops who show up to see what's going on.

8:42 -- I am told that the broomstick of the snowman needs to be removed because it could be used as a deadly weapon. Things got worse after I muttered: "Yeah,if it's up your ass."

8:52 -- My phone is seized and thoroughly checked while I am blindfolded and flown to the police station in a helicopter.

9:00 -- I'm on the news as a suspected terrorist bent on stirring up trouble at this sensitive time.

9:10 -- I am asked if I have any accomplices.

9:29 -- ISIS just claimed responsibility.

Welcome to political correctness.

UN lambastes Australia for anti-migrant policies during first week on human rights council

It is unsurprising that Australia would get beaten up about its sensible immigration policy by the UN, which has been hijacked by the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC). While the UN lambastes Australia over the supposed "abuse" of migrants, it entirely ignores the mass abuses and jihad attacks that many Muslim migrants have brought to Europe.

Islamists Scheme to Disrupt Egyptian Presidential Elections

Islamists, led by the Muslim Brotherhood, have called for the boycott of elections, while their affiliated terrorist groups Hasm and Liwa Al Thawra (Revolution Brigade) – designated as terrorist groups by the United States on Jan. 31, are still operating to disrupt and sabotage the elections process. The Egyptian police forces arrested 14 and killed three Hasm members in a preemptive operation before Hasm executed its plan to attack during elections. At the same time, ISIS vows to attack voters and polling stations across the country.

Iran: Women protesting against hijab to be charged with inciting prostitution, jailed for up to ten years

The idea behind the "inciting prostitution" charge is that it is women's responsibility to prevent men from being tempted. If she takes off her hijab, she is inviting them to be tempted. And that's tantamount to prostitution, in the Sharia-wracked minds of Khamenei and Rouhani.

SOUTH AFRICA

South Africa sets its course on race-hatred, poverty, starvation, and mass deaths

What was once the most prosperous nation in Africa is set to follow the path of Zimbabwe toward utter ruin. South Africa's Parliament has just voted to seize white-owned farmland without compensation. Further, Cape Town, a metropolis of almost 4 million people, has roughly two months left before it runs out of water, owing to extended drought and inadequate water capture and storage infrastructure.

The coming controversy over admitting white refugees from South Africa

The news that South Africa is moving decisively in the disastrous direction of Zimbabwe – confiscating the land of white farmers, which is by definition ethnic cleansing and almost certainly will involve mass murder (as it did in Zimbabwe) – has already sparked a petition to allow the resulting refugees into the United States:

UNITED KINGDOM

Archbishop of Canterbury: Sharia incompatible with UK law, but we must “allow ourselves to change with the newcomers”

If we welcome the strangers and allow ourselves to change with them, we will end up accepting Sharia, which Welby just yesterday said was incompatible with British law. The Archbishop of Canterbury is not, apparently, a consistent thinker. He added that high levels of immigration from Muslim countries can ‘have an impact on the accepted pattern for choosing a partner, on assumed ages of maturity and sexual activity, and especially on issues of polygamy’.... He said yesterday in advance of publication that British law has ‘underlying values and assumptions’ that come from a clearly Christian tradition.

How to destroy the United States: Ditch the rule of law

The rule of law is central to freedom. It is a concept meant solely for the individual. That is why Lady Justice wears a blindfold. She doesn't care how smart you are, what your name is, where you came from, or any of a million other variables. The time is long overdue for America to return, once and for all, to a single rule of law. We have paid more than enough for our foolishness.

Epps Aviation vs. hijab by Rachel Ehrenfeld

Patrick Epps, a proud American and former U.S. Air Force pilot, refused to be blackmailed by CAIR's blatant extortion attempt. He fought back. On August 22, 2017, after EPPS Aviation had spent more than $100,000 in legal fees, U.S. Magistrate Judge Walter E. Johnson ruled in favor of EPPS Aviation. NYC: Three Muslim women awarded $60,000 each for having to remove hijab for mugshots

Punished for Not Chanting "Death to America, Israel, Britain"

I grew up being taught every morning in school to raise my fist and chant loudly "Death to America", "Death to Israel" and "Death to Britain". There was no confusion as to the meaning of those chants. If I did not do so, I was severely punished. Unfortunately, "Death to" means exactly what it says. Where I grew up, chants were, and still are, one of the most powerful brainwashing tools utilized by extremist Muslim leaders to coerce their followers to fulfill the leaders' religious and political wishes. Chants and slogans served to mobilize, unite, and empower people in a way that almost no other tool has succeeded in doing.

Broward County Considered Hotbed for Terrorism, Sheriff's Deputy a CAIR Leader

Since the school shooting, Sheriff Israel has stated on countless national media appearances that arming teachers is a terrible idea to keep students safe. Has al-Qaeda Learned from Its Mistakes?

Al-Qaeda, ISIS, and other jihadi groups did not suddenly spring out of nowhere. Global jihad is not an isolated phenomenon; in many ways, jihadists are the tip of a very big iceberg. They are not the lunatic fringe of Sunni Islam but rather the fanatic core of Sunni Islam, which makes them a profoundly different—and much more dangerous—phenomenon. They are, unfortunately for the West, an integral part of that major portion of Islam that is, functionally speaking, radical.

Kurdish Women Are Shining

What is outstanding is the prominence of Kurdish women. Female fighters in the Women's Protection Units, the YPJ, played a key role in the siege of Kobani and in rescuing Yazidis trapped on Mount Sinjar. The prominent Egyptian feminist writer and activist, and co-founder of the Arab Association for Human Rights, Nawal el Saadawi, complimented Kurdish women for their fight against ISIS, showing courage. Those women are waging a battle against an oppressive, abusive society, and for democracy.

OIC chief: "There can be no justification for any violent action and killing under the pretext of Islam"

The OIC's goal has been to promote its victimhood "Islamophobia" imperative through its "Islamophobia Observatories," which present Muslims as victims and ignores the human rights abuses, persecution and atrocities against innocent people that are frequently committed in the name of Islam. Actions such as raping infidel women, execution for apostasy and homosexuality, beheadings, stonings, striking terror into the hearts of disbelievers, are all justified by Islamic texts, and are routinely practiced globally. This includes actions by Islamic states as well as groups such as Al Qaeda, the Islamic State, Al Shabaab, Boko Haram, etc. Bloody jihad is even mandated by the Muslim Brotherhood in accordance with statements of its founder Hassan al-Banna, and is seen increasingly as the Muslim Brotherhood becomes more aggressive in Egypt.

The West's Darkest Hour by Melanie Phillips

There are ominous signs that a terrible war is looming in the Middle East, and the West cannot be a bystander. It looks as if history is about to repeat itself, with Britain once again being catastrophically unprepared.

And this time, there is no Churchill to prevent national disaster by the force of his own character and use of the English language that he weaponized and sent into battle for the cause of freedom.

ARTICLE OF THE WEEK

Speakers Cornered

The category of hate speech is disturbingly expandable and depends on the propensity of groups of people to take offense or feel threatened (where it pays to be offended, people will take offense). Certain groups, but not others, are accorded legal or social protection from unpleasant name-calling, as if they were endangered species. This, ultimately, is the legacy of Nazism, collective insult or criticism being held to be the first step on the slippery slope down to Auschwitz. This is not an entirely dishonorable fear, and many writers on the subject of genocide have noted the role of dehumanizing language in preparing whole peoples to accept or to commit this most heinous of crimes. But if all that separates us from genocide is preventing Katie Hopkins from speaking in Lewes because of a few injudicious remarks that she has made, we are in a sad moral condition indeed—much worse than even I had envisaged.
