

“Immigration, a benefit during the youth of a nation, can act as a disease in its mature state. Too much internal diversity in large nations has led to violence and disintegration. We are now in the process of destabilizing our own countries. The magic words of destabilizers are ‘diversity’ and ‘multiculturalism’.”

Canada

There is no let up from Islamists in Ontario who continue to make demands to push Sharia/Islamic law (ideology) in Canada. They are now requesting prayer spaces be created at Toronto subways – but go on to say it won't stop there...hospitals, malls, airports, etc.

It is important we unite across the country and take ACTION as what happens in Ontario will become common practise across this nation. There is one law that governs Canada and that is CANADIAN Law.

The RCMP arrested two people on Thursday, including a youth who has been charged, as part of a terrorist bomb plot investigation in Kingston, Ontario. The youth, whose name can't be disclosed, has been charged with knowingly facilitating a terrorist activity and "counselling a person to deliver, place, discharge or detonate an explosive or another lethal device" in a public place.

Rahaf Case Exposes Some Inconvenient Truths About the Islamic World

On Monday a curious news story by CBC investigative journalist Shanifa Nasser caught my eye, posted to the broadcaster's website with the title: "Who benefits from rescuing Rahaf? Questions linger after whirlwind story of Saudi teen's asylum." The title itself insinuated something was not kosher about l'affaire Rahaf. If the title implied a questionable process, the text of the story made no attempt at hiding the story's lack of balance.

Rahaf Mohammed, Linda Sarsour, and the Question of Apostasy

It's a very important case. Thanks to Rahaf Mohammed, the world has been given a good look at several aspects of Islam that deserve to be held up for inspection. First, there is the demonstration that despite Qur'an 2:256, a favorite verse for Islamic apologists that says "there is no compulsion in religion," the example of Rahaf Mohammed shows that there most certainly is "compulsion" in the religion of Islam. The threat of death for apostasy, which Rahaf Mohammed clearly fears, constitutes all the "compulsion" any Muslim needs to stay within the faith.

Canadian woman who converted to Islam strangled to death in honor killing in Pakistan

ISIS video allegedly shows doctor from Canada urging ‘jihad’

More than a decade ago, a handful of Canadians travelled to Somalia to join Al Shabab. Syria and Iraq later became the preferred destination for would-be jihadists. But with ISIS dislodged from most of Iraq, and surrounded in northeastern Syria, extremists appear to be attempting to join the affiliates that have sprung up in Africa and Asia. A video released Wednesday by the Somali branch of ISIS featured a man it described as a doctor from Canada urging jihad.

They are breaking their own M-103 law by admitting Muslims may hurt her. This clearly means that we have a legal right to talk about or show fear from Islam in many situations.

Mexican Asylum Claims Skyrocket Since the Trudeau Government Eliminated Visa for Mexican Nationals

In July 2016, the Trudeau government removed the visitor visa for Mexicans travelling to Canada - a visa imposed by the Harper government back in 2009 to end a surge of Mexicans claiming refugee status — despite the fact that the visa significantly reduced the number of asylum claims. The number of Mexican asylum claimants to Canada is on track to rise almost 75% above the previous year's total, or an 840% increase from 2016's total.

MUSLIM AWARENESS WEEK

From: <info@actforcanada.ca>

Subject: 'Work together, hand in hand': Group launches Muslim Awareness Week

The Quebec City mosque killing was a tragedy. I strongly condemn all forms of violence, including violence motivated by hatred and bigotry, and I call on all Canadians to affirm their commitment to civil, open dialogue and non-violence. But if we are to fully understand this tragedy, we must pursue truth and speak openly about Islamic terrorism.

I would like to propose a week to remember the victims of Islamic killings in Canada. Why shouldn't we remember Aqsa Parvez, strangled by her father and brother with the Hijab she refused to wear; or Zainab, Sahar and Geeti Shafia and their step-mother, Rona Amir Mohammad, cruelly drowned by their father, mother and brother? Or how about 20 year old Bano Shahdady, strangled in front of her 2 year old son by her husband for throwing away her burka? What about 13-year-old Marrisa Chen, murdered by a Syrian refugee last year?

Where is the sympathy for them? The candles? The flowers? The vigils? The hand-wringing? The interfaith services honouring their memory? Should they not be remembered too?

Kind regards, Valerie Price

CANADIAN OIL & GAS

Researcher exposes money trail behind U.S.-based campaign to kill the oilsands

Vivian Krause's name has become synonymous with the fight against the concerted effort by U.S. oil interests working to land-lock Canadian oil and gas by using environmental groups to protest against the industry with the stated aim of grinding development to a halt. Krause is a one-woman wrecking crew to the wall of secrecy behind that foreign plan, which she has almost single-handedly exposed by painstakingly following the money trail.

Krause finished her talk with this question: "We need to ask ourselves, what would Texas do if a group of charitable foundations from Canada were running a multimillion-dollar campaign to land-lock Texan crude? Would they let it go on for 10 years? I don't think so. Maybe that's what we need. We need to think like Texas."

WORLD HIJAB DAY

On World Hijab Day, remember those who refuse to wear it, too by Barbara Kay

Although many Muslim women consider the hijab nothing more than an outward expression of female modesty, for many others it is a political statement, sometimes signifying anti-Western sentiment or support for political Islam. Many women choose to wear it; many others are forced to. Personally, I have no wish to 'experience' the hijab any more than I wish to 'experience' a crucifix around my neck.

The irony would be funny if this situation were not so serious: these boys were accused of being bigots, but it is their unhinged media harassers and Twittermobbers who are the true bigots. They pre-judged these boys on

The Disgraceful Covington Catholic Pile-On by Bruce Bawer

The daily media smearing of Donald Trump and his followers is one thing, but the readiness not just of the media but of self-righteous types from all walks of life to demonize a bunch of Kentucky high-school kids on the basis of a couple of news reports was truly breathtaking. All in all, then, a disgraceful weekend — topped off, as it happened, by an admirably thoughtful and well-written statement from Nick Sandmann that was more generous-spirited than any of the calumnies directed at him and his Bluegrass State schoolmates by sanctimonious mediocrities around the world. They could all take a lesson from this teenager in maturity, strength of character, and grace under pressure. But don't hold your breath.

Lunatic left-wing twitter users are about to go to JAIL over making “terroristic threats” against Catholic school students... and it’s about damn time

So far, there have been zero consequences for deranged, lunatic Leftists making death threats against President Trump and repeatedly threatening violence against Trump supporters. These are the same left-wing lunatics who declare themselves “defenders of schoolchildren” after every school shooting. Finally, a prosecutor has decided to start throwing lunatic, leftists in prison for promoting terrorism and violence against schoolchildren.

THE UNITED NATIONS

The Real United Nations

Alice La Trobe-Bateman (Alice Bailey) wanted a New World Order and a One World Religion and she had a strategy. The most important aspect of New Age teaching is the targeting of children. Alice Bailey said when you are changing a nation, don't bother with the old people, they are too stuck in the old traditions, they will not change, but GO FOR THE CHILDREN and the Church. That is what she did and what the Lucis Trust is currently doing. If they can take down America, the rest of the world will follow

The UN is trying to grab control of worldwide immigration policies

In a section on eliminating "all forms of discrimination," this compact also aims to "shape perceptions of migration," not least by smothering free speech and promoting gags and penalties for news coverage or debate that the U.N., in its collective majesty, deems unfriendly to migrants. Coming from a United Nations that has yet to solve its own problems with peacekeeper rape of minors, that's ambitious.

IMMIGRATION-MIGRATION

Don't ever question mass immigration or you'll be instantly racist by Barbara Kay

The PM is perceived by many as lacking the ability (or desire) to distinguish between immigrants, migrants and refugees. Often, we feel like stooges of politicians who claim to be focused on immigrants' value to Canada, but who are really focused on immigrants as voters. And we feel frustrated because rational discussion of immigration does not seem possible when any and all objections are met with mantras like "diversity is our strength" at the top. And because we are not allowed to talk about these things without incurring charges of racism.

The Diversity Delusion: Destroying America's Heritage with Endless Immigration

Think about Islam as a failed system in the Middle East. Its people flood into America from the refuse of Islamic countries. Islam's intentions in American society: Islamists have shown the world time and again who they are and what they stand for yet the world refuses to believe them. And even when moderate Muslims — people who were born and raised in Islamic societies — try to educate the West about what Islam truly stands for, the West still refuses to believe them, too.

Virtue signaling at its sickest to prove they're not Islamophobes, millions of Brits gang up on a helpless teen

Take the case of Bailey McLaren, a 16-year-old working-class boy from Huddersfield, West Yorkshire. In November, footage of him jumping Jamal, a 15-year-old Syrian-born classmate, in the schoolyard, apparently in October, went viral. Although nobody was seriously harmed in the fracas, the British media rushed to report at length on it. Because Bailey held Jamal down while pouring a bottle of water on his face, he was described as having committed an act of "waterboarding." Because Jamal was Syrian, Bailey's action was characterized as "racist."

As a consequence of the nationwide coverage of the schoolyard scuffle, Jamal received what the Mail called "a huge outpouring of support" from all over Britain. Total strangers reached out. The Huddersfield Town Supporters' Association invited him to a football match. Jamal was offered a free lifetime membership at a Dublin gym and a training course at a gym in Bradford. BBC talking head Jake Humphrey said he'd foot the bill for a trip by Jamal to see his favorite soccer team play. Somebody even set up a GoFundMe page for Jamal. It's already raked in over £100,000.

Linda Sarsour is a Bad Omen for America

Linda Sarsour was a familiar face in the Obama White House. The Obama administration opened the White House to adherents of political Islam; they attended hundreds of meetings at the White House. Court documents and other records have confirmed that many of these visitors belong to groups that act as fronts for the Muslim Brotherhood, Hamas and other Islamic organizations. Obama is gone from the White House, but Sarsour's continuing influence on the Left is a bad omen for America, a sign of what will happen in the future.

The Great Disruptor – Donald J. Trump

In Hans Christian Anderson's tale, "The Emperor's New Clothes," a small boy calls attention to the fact that the Emperor is naked – that the clothes sold him by an unscrupulous merchant who appealed to his vanity were, in fact, nothing. None of the people who watched the Emperor as he paraded by said anything, as they didn't want to admit they were too ignorant to see his fine suit of clothes. It took a small boy to call out the truth, that the Emperor was indeed naked. Today, it is Donald J. Trump who has called our attention to the corruption, stagnation and cronyism of political systems populated with elites who think they live beyond the boundaries of criticism. For doing so, he has been vilified.

The question facing many Muslims and their religious leaders who have similar views is: Will they be able to begin directly discussing the root causes of Muslims' extremism and hatred of non-Muslims? Many Muslims worldwide are hoping they do, but governments and intellectuals will need to back these efforts with work, determination, and unfaltering support. There are Muslim women who accept their inferiority and are probably perfectly happy. Liberty is dying in America, and I (the director of Killing Europe) expose in the new movie Killing Free Speech how the U.S. is going down the same self-destructive road as Europe. The film exposes the radical left's actions to silence free speech and the mainstream media's efforts to shut down
