

“Free institutions are next to impossible in a country made up of different nationalities. Among a people without fellow-feeling, especially if they read and speak different languages, the united public opinion, necessary to the working of representative government, cannot exist.”

~ Enoch Powell ~

The barbaric racist massacre in New Zealand has shocked the world. It has also shone a light on one of the most worrying things in contemporary society: the rise of communal and cultural tensions. Whether it's the hundreds of Europeans slaughtered by Islamist terrorists in recent years or the murder of Jews by a white extremist in the US or this killing of 49 Muslims by a self-styled defender of the white race, identity-based conflict is intensifying. It is ridiculous to blame this on President Trump's Twitter feed, or the right-wing media, or the tiny white-supremacist movement, as some people are doing in relation to the NZ massacre. Instead we have to dig down into the scourge of identity politics, which increasingly seems to be the only political game in town, and the way it has rehabilitated racial thinking, cultural division, and competitive grievance. spiked's rallying cry for the whole 18 years of its existence feels as urgent as ever: we need a humanist politics, a politics of common values, a politics of democratic engagement over communal separatism, not this relentless race into the cesspit of identitarian warring.

~ Brendan O'Neill ~

New Zealand: The Barbarism of Identity Politics

The obscene act of racist mass murder in New Zealand has shocked the world. The massacre of 49 human beings will always be a deeply disturbing act. This is an attack on Muslims, on religious freedom, and on humanity, and every decent person will want to offer their condolences and solidarity to the people of New Zealand. As we offer our solidarity, we also want to try to understand why things like this happen.

To fold this barbarism into a narrative about a surging threat of white supremacy or even Islamophobia overlooks what feels terrifyingly mainstream about the ideas that appear to have energised and inspired this racist mass murderer – namely, the politics of identity. The relentless reduction of people to cultural beings is unleashing terrible conflict.

Making Use of a Massacre

The shell casings barely stopped bouncing on the floor in the second of two mosques in Christchurch New Zealand, before the rush to politicize the massacre began. There is no decency anymore. Terrorism is a gray, murky territory, but this attack in New Zealand isn't terrorism.... it literally is the work of a lone mad-man. There isn't a group behind him, his ideology is unique, and he is a bizarre fantasist craving attention and fame. The best we can all do is to give him none!

Brad Johnson on New Zealand Mosque Massacre

The lies about it are really unsubtle with Trump's picture headlining Newspapers saying the terrorist supported Trump when he clearly stated in his manifesto that he did not. It slowly came out that he is a Serbian Christian orthodox and if you look at the weapon there are a bunch of names written on it – are the intended victims – all of that is BS - all lies – the globalist.

<https://vladtepesblog.com/2019/03/15/brad-johnson-on-the-new-zealand-mosque-shooting/>

Christchurch, Conservatism, and Fascism

This manifesto is "anti-Muslim," but it is dangerous to dismiss the shooter's writings as solely "Islamophobia." Instead, it needs to be recognized for what it is - a piece of writing that, while disjointed and "memey" at times, is fascist to its core. Not only does the author give us his biggest influence - Sir Oswald Mosley - but his second section shows that he is very well read when it comes to fascist literature. Don't sweep what he wrote under the rug and don't blame Republicans or Democrats for "radicalizing" this shooter. Now more than ever, we need to debate specifically against Fascists - just as we did against Communists back in the day - for Christchurch, and the future Christchurches that will happen unless we change our course.

CANADA

Trudeau going soft on SNC-Lavalin's corruption could cost Canada a lot

Thanks to one crooked company, Canada has had the shameful honour of dominating the World Bank's corruption list since 2013. If SNC-Lavalin ends up being tried and convicted, maybe it really would sink the company. But maybe that would be better than Canada being viewed as being weak in enforcing the law against a company that has so openly flouted it for so long. SNC-Lavalin's record from 1996 to 2011 is abysmal.

Brad Wall: SNC-Lavalin's VIP treatment is a slap in the face to the West

At a time of historic job losses and dimming prospects, the federal government has actually sought to make things worse. Juxtaposed against the existential risk the federal government took to save far fewer jobs at SNC-Lavalin is its apparent determination to pass Bill C-69, which industry has said will make it harder if not impossible to secure approvals for future pipeline proposals. It sure seems that no PMO effort was made to Environment Minister Catherine McKenna or Natural Resources Minister Amarjeet Sohi to "influence" and assure the scrapping of C-69 for example.

Enoch Powell, "Rivers of Blood" and the Fate of White Canada: Part I

If "Londonistan" is already here, then the specter of "Great Britainistan" looms menacingly over the horizon. The immigrants will bide their time until they are able to replace Britain's rulers with someone who shares their own religious values and racial phenotype. When that terrible day comes, they will turn their knives, guns and bombs on the white man. What began as an open spigot that slowly trickled blood, will become a fast-moving torrent if whites continue to stand by and do nothing.

Enoch Powell, "Rivers of Blood" and the Fate of White Canada: Part II

The immigrant's deteriorating economic performance and increasing residential segregation will reach crisis proportions, as long as immigration is allowed to continue. The immigrant problem is further exacerbated by massive white flight and the hostile elite's demonization of Canada's founding stock as "evil white racists." This has created a toxic cauldron of racial hatred and jealousy that will explode into a seething, violent rage. If immigration is not stopped and the non-whites repatriated, Canadian whites will become the Boer farmers of North America, surrounded by mobs of angry non-whites threatening them with genocide unless they hand over more and more of the "magic dirt."

EXCLUSIVE: Rebel uncovers where terrorist Omar Khadr hid $3M of his ill-gotten payout

Trudeau structured the payout to Khadr in secrecy making it difficult for Khadr's living victims to execute the $134M wrongful-death judgment they won against him in a US court. Khadr and his lawyers have, so far, sheltered that money from seizure. It was safely hidden away, until now. If Khadr moves this money, I'll do everything I can to find it again. I will do my best to find that other $7M so that it ends up in the hands of the people who deserve it, and not as a real estate nest egg, padding the retirement plan of an unrepentant cold-blooded killer.

Why is the RCMP trying to recruit at a Muslim Brotherhood affiliated Mosque?

Canadians need to have faith in the institutions designed to protect them, and at least one recent development will not help the RCMP's credibility. On March 1st, 2019 the RCMP held a recruitment session at Masjid Toronto, a mosque that is a part of the Muslim Association of Canada (MAC), a group that openly affiliates itself as inspired by the Muslim Brotherhood. Their mere presence at Masjid Toronto should raise eyebrows considering the mosque's recent controversies.

What, then, Pirro asked, was the source of Omar's Jew-hatred? "Think about it," Pirro went on. "Omar wears a hijab, which according to the Koran 33:59 tells women to cover so that they don't get molested. Is her adherence to this Islamic doctrine indicative of her adherence to sharia law, which in itself is antithetical to the United States Constitution?" This question was a perfectly legitimate one.

ANTI-SEMITISM

Equivocating on Condemnation of Anti-Semitism

While it had several statements condemning anti-Semitic libels, it also asserted that in the wake of 9/11, Muslims shouldn't be associated with terrorism, and that it is "unfair," "irrational," and "prejudicial" to believe that [some] Muslims sympathize with terrorism or those who oppress women, Jews and minorities (thus denying Sharia's ideology). The resolution also calls on law enforcement and government officials to refrain from "profiling." Because this is the first congressional resolution condemning "anti-Muslim bigotry," three Muslim Congressmen – Omar, Tlaib and Andre Carson (D-IN) – are claiming a victory in its passage.

SOUTHERN POVERTY LAW CENTRE

If there is any justice, the firing of its founder should to launch the collapse and liquidation of the Southern Poverty Law Center

Maybe Dees was fired for sexual or racial infractions, but my strong suspicion is that control of the half billion dollars in assets is the real issue. A pot of money that big attracts a lot of devious people, and it would seem that a lot of devious people have found a home over the years at the SPLC. Few private organizations can match the Southern Poverty Law Center when it comes to hypocrisy and malign influence, though Media Matters for America might be close.

The Verdict – A Completely Corrupt System!

So today was the final day of my court case against Cambridgeshire Police. I took them to court with only one intention, which was to have them accept accountability for the police harassment and distress which they caused to my children. I was offered TWO out of court settlements by Cambridgeshire Police, of which I refused immediately, as this case was never about money, this case was about proving a point, which today we have done. We have proven that we now live in a Police state, where an innocent man with his children on a day out can be persecuted, targeted and harassed with the FULL sanction of the British Court.

There is "a lot of anecdotal data" which shows that female genital mutilation (FGM) is increasingly being performed on babies and infants in the UK, according to FGM expert and attorney Dr. Charlotte Proudman. She added that it was "almost impossible to detect" as the girls were not yet in school or at nursery, thus making it difficult for any public authority to become aware of it. Proudman added that the lack of prosecutions for FGM is due in part to concerns by doctors and police over being accused of racism.

EU: Telling Europeans What to Think

Europeans evidently now need the further indispensable guidance of the European Commission to learn how properly to navigate, read and interpret the news, whether the source is traditional or digital. How and why it became the business of the EU bureaucracy to teach Europeans what to read and think remains somewhat obscure. Warning against Islamic terrorism, according to the French judicial system, is not only criminal but apparently represents a psychological aberration. Le Pen could face up to three years in prison and a fine of €75,000 ($85,000).
