CANADA

Please note: Neither ACT! For Canada nor C3RF are endorsing any particular party. We are supporting those individual candidates that are prepared to buck politically correct narratives that diminish Canadian individual rights and freedoms. If we see another such individual from any other party come forward, we will have no problem supporting that individual as well. The country is in desperate need of such leaders. Regardless of the Party ticket Salim Mansur uses, Canada needs his input in Parliament. Please note that the link we provided goes directly to his office, not the PPC's.

A Call to Support Salim Mansur's Campaign to Fight for Your Freedom

Patriots hit the Normandy beaches 75 years ago. Where are today's patriots? For a long time now, the free speech rights of Canadians have been suppressed when it comes to certain, politically correct narratives. These narratives include those associated with immigration and multiculturalism and heaven forbid if you dare criticize related policies - you will be demonized and called names that end in “phobic”. To make matters worse, your elected representatives are reticent to enter the debate on your behalf and stand by timidly, as you are insulted and the country digs itself deeper into a state of social dissonance. These and other topics need to be openly debated as they have a huge impact on the future of Canada. It goes without saying that the country is in dire need of leaders to come forward, engage on these issues and defend the right of everyday Canadians to do likewise.

C3RF has been a vocal advocate for the Charter Rights of individual Canadians in the face of politically correct narratives that would see these same rights diminished. As the Canadian federal election approaches, it has recognized the need for candidates to come forward and engage in this battle of the individual over the collective. One such candidate has come forward to speak for free speech and against Islamism and globalism. He is Dr. Salim Mansur. He has the support of C3RF and merits your consideration.

Google Manipulating Search Engine Results to Get Justin Trudeau Re-Elected

Google has likely been determining the outcomes of upwards of 25 percent of the national elections worldwide since at least 2015. This is because many races are very close and because Google’s persuasive technologies are very powerful.

Canada’s Public Broadcaster Airs Its Documentary Celebrating Children in Drag

Canada’s taxpayer-funded media outlet, which is allotted $1.5 billion dollars a year, promoted its documentary about children performing in drag for the entire month of July. The network used its CBC Kids Twitter profile to ask the question, “What’s it like to be a KID #DRAGQUEEN?”

Maxime Bernier, the leader of the People's Party of Canada and a former foreign affairs minister in the Stephen Harper Conservative government, agreed with Landolt. Bernier, who is a persistent critic of the CBC, noted: "The documentary director claims this has nothing to do with sexuality. This is patently false. These kids move and dance in a way that is meant to be sexually suggestive." "As a father, I find it totally disgraceful that CBC promotes the sexualization of children. It's simply unbelievable that taxpayers are paying for this type of trash.

Dear Jessica Yaniv: You're an Evil Sex Predator...

Dear ugly, disgusting man who'll never be a woman. I'm tired of seeing your brutish face. I'm tired of reading your gender appropriating name. I'm tired of your insistence you're a woman simply because you say you're a woman. But mostly I'm tired of your sense of entitlement erected to hide your true nature: predatory perversion. A man who wants to force his genitals onto women goes by another name. It starts with an "R." No other hints shall be given.

<https://www.louderwithcrowder.com/dear-jessica-yaniv-youre-an-evil-sex-predator/>

“J. Yaniv should be arrested. I know we have incredible police officers in our nation, but how much do you want to bet that it is too "politically incorrect" to arrest and charge this guy? We would rather leave real women and children at risk because we might offend someone with the truth.

We're tired of it! We don't care about people being offended. I'm offended every single day by perversion, immorality, profanity and corruption. I'm offended by your pride and arrogance. I'm offended by an attitude of entitlement in some who feel it is their right to offend me...BUT I will not limit your free speech. So, you better stop trying to limit mine. Don't tell other people what they can and cannot say or what they have to believe.

At the point when your rights bludgeon my rights as an adult, you have gone too far. Live any way you like, just leave my parental rights alone and leave my freedom to disagree with you in a democratic society alone. Don't tell my kids stuff that millions and millions of Canadians don't agree with and don't sexualize children.”

~ Maxime Bernier ~

The Yaniv outrage has left Canada, rightly, the laughing stock of the world by Rex Murphy

People do not choose to wax other people’s genitals for love of the craft. They are poor. They likely want to provide for their children so those children will never have to face the unpalatable chore of tending to other people’s privates, male or female, privates. These selfless people, who condescend to this work are, properly considered, moral heroes. Parents who do what all great parents have done, work for the good of their children. But now they are “defendants” in a Canadian court, accused of being transphobic bigots.

All Aboard with Transgender Ideology

As gay British author and journalist Douglas Murray wrote: "When we as a culture are forced to play along with something that we know is not true—and more than that, something which is often simply ridiculous, it degrades and demoralizes us all. The totalitarian instincts of the transgender crowd are rooted in the fact that many of them know that they cannot actually persuade much of the public of their premises, and so instead the public must be forced to accept them or pay the price. That is a very dangerous road, and one that is in our power to avoid...This transgender mass delusion will end when enough refuse to play along."

There's Still a Crisis at our Border

The mainstream media wants you to think migrants have stopped illegally crossing our border. They want you to think the Trudeau government has somehow solved the crisis at our border. But that's far from the truth. Hundreds are illegally entering Canada on a daily basis thanks to Justin Trudeau's open border policies and his open invitation to the world's migrants. True North's Founder, Candice Malcolm, explains in her latest video.

Hate Crimes on the Decline. Liberals Pretending Otherwise

Hate crimes and hate incidents have dropped dramatically in Canada since last year, but the Liberal government, which promised "evidence-based policy" is still claiming they're on the rise. True North's Andrew Lawton exposes the discrepancy – and how the left and special interest groups stand to benefit from the notion that Canada is a hateful place.

B'nai Brith Outraged by Antisemitic Taxi Assault in Montreal

While waiting for a cab operated by the Taxi Champlain company to stop blocking the underground garage, the victim heard the taxi driver shout, "I won't move for any fing Jews!" The driver then allegedly threatened to kill the victim, who is visibly identifiable as a Jew because he wears a kippah, or Jewish head covering. The victim then attempted to photograph the taxi number in order to file a complaint, at which point the driver exited his car and punched him repeatedly until a parking supervisor intervened. The victim's phone was also smashed.

Canada Court Sides with BDS Extremists over Israeli Wine Labeling

In a move that has been blasted as illegal by critics, Canada's Federal Court on Monday ruled that Israeli wines from West Bank settlements can no longer be labeled "Made in Israel." In her ruling, Judge Anne L. Mactavish determined that saying wines produced in the West Bank are Israeli made is "false, misleading and deceptive." The ruling is an ideological victory for the anti-Semitic, anti-Israel Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) Movement. The settlements "are not part of the State of Israel," the ruling said, and added that "Canadian federal legislation requires that food products [including wines] that are sold in Canada bear truthful, non-deceptive and non-misleading country of origin labels."

Why Repealing the Multiculturalism Act Makes Sense

By pursuing multicultural globalism (instead of bicultural nationalism) along with mass immigration (which by 1988 had tripled compared to just five years earlier), Ottawa embarked on remaking Canada into a 'nation of nations'; relegating its national identity to nothing more than 'diversity tolerance' and 'pluralistic values.' An experiment with no clear goal or a discussion of its consequences, Canadians were indeed being steered into uncharted territory.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Silicon Valley Sharia: Amazon Removes 'Killing Europe' Documentary Exposing Islam, Mass Migration

The documentary, Killing Europe, produced by independent filmmaker Michael Hansen, had been hosted on Amazon since 2017 without issue. But after the conservative-leaning new site, Breitbart News, reported on Hansen's new documentary, Killing Free Speech, Amazon removed the documentary. A slated screening of Killing Europe was canceled by the Ottawa Public Library last year, following intimidation from left-wing activists.

IMMIGRATION

Ilhan Omar and Brigitte Gabriel: The Tale of Two Very Different American Immigrants

Two American immigrant women, Ilhan Omar and Brigitte Gabriel, both found this to be true when they immigrated from war-torn countries to ultimately find themselves in the land of the free and home of the brave. While their childhood experiences in their home countries draw some parallels, their views on the country that provided them the ultimate opportunity could not be more different.

The continued listing to port of Fox News, which rose to prominence precisely because it cut through the politically correct swamp fog that passed as media news just as Donald Trump sliced through the swamp itself on his way to the White House, was on full display on Fox News Sunday when host Chris Wallace joined Democrats whose latest charge of Trump racism occurred when Trump reminded Baltimore Rep. Elijah Cummings that conditions in his rat-infested congressional district were worse than conditions in ICE detention centers on our porous southern border with Mexico. Welcome to the new Fox News. 114 carbon-spewing celebrity private jets roll in to Google's Global warming party conference

Google founders Sergei Brin and Larry Page have put on a "conference" for all their celebrity best friends forever, for the virtue-signaling purpose of lecturing the rest of us on global warming. They'd like us to cut back on the air conditioning, end the use of straws, take the public bus, and do away with toilet paper, all to save the Earth. They flew to the exclusive resort in Sicily for it on 114 carbon-spewing private jets, and an untold number of gargantuan yachts, to get in on the shindig.

Do The 'Big Four' Tech Monopolies Deserve Their Antitrust Investigation? Yes

Are the big social media sites monopolies? Are search engines? Do Facebook, Amazon, Google, Apple, and the rest so thoroughly dominate their fields — or work in combination to do so — to constitute a restraint of trade and harm to the consumer? The Department of Justice's Antitrust Division announced Tuesday that it aims to find out. The results of that investigation could drastically alter the internet landscape.

Please Sign the Petition to Designate Antifa as a Terror Organization

On July 19, 2019 Senators Ted Cruz and Bill Cassidy proposed a resolution to designate Antifa a terrorist group. "Antifa is a terrorist organization composed of hateful, intolerant radicals who pursue their extreme agenda through aggressive violence," Cruz said. As noted by the president, Antifa is a radical Leftist group known for using violence to propel their agenda. Most recently, they targeted and attacked conservative journalist Any Ngo — among others — at a demonstration in Portland, Oregon, sending Ngo to the hospital with a brain bleed.

<https://clarionproject.org/sign-our-petition-to-designate-antifa-as-a-terror-organization/>

The United States government is considering naming left-wing extremist group, Antifa, a terrorist group. Canada remains quiet.

The situation in Canada, however, remains very different. None of the major political parties in Canada has condemned Antifa, with taxpayer dollars even going to an Antifa-friendly CBC radio broadcast. The episode saw the CBC try to glorify the history of the far-left group as fascist-fighting superheroes while remaining quiet on the group's record of unprovoked violence in Canada and abroad.

POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

Political Correctness: Tool of Totalitarianism

Political correctness didn't just happen; it has been carefully crafted over time. Radical liberals long ago realized that their emotion-based dogma could not withstand logical examination. The only solution for protecting radical liberalism until it undergoes its full evolution to totalitarianism was to snuff any contrary thought and speech. This being the case, the liberal cabal of coastal elites, academia, and victimhood profit centers, supported by the always faithful mainstream media, employed well honed weapons such as indoctrination of children, mass shaming, and shouting down dissent while playing on conservative apathy to firmly root political correctness in the mass psyche.

A Real Feminist: Kurdistan's President Nechirvan Barzani

Sadly, I live in a part of the world that is dominated by misogyny, patriarchal viewpoints and systematic violence against women. However, despite this reality, Kurdistan's President Nechirvan Barzani views women to be equal partners in the struggle for the liberation of Kurdistan. He values their contributions to Kurdish society and wants them to live dignified lives. For Barzani, empowering Kurdish women and girls is a top priority. He truly is a male feminist living in a part of the world dominated by patriarchal totalitarian dictatorships.

Kurdistan's President Nechirvan Barzani understands the importance of upholding women's rights globally. This is why he has done everything in his power to promote the well-being of women and girls within Kurdistan when he was Prime Minister. With the swearing in of Barzani to the presidency, I am positive that Kurdistan's women and girls have a promising future ahead of them.

RUSSIA

Russian Train Terror

Years ago, a deputy Russian foreign minister suggested a "northern alliance" of European and North American countries with Russia to combat Islamic terrorism, believing this was the way it could be stopped. Hopefully, President Trump can forge such an alliance, or at least a new, positive relationship with Russia. The times now require such a step. It is very necessary and may be civilization's savior in combating Islamic terrorism. The Russian collusion hoax and the anti-Russian Beltway types must be ignored. Russia, with its large Christian population and similar culture and outlook, is America's and Western Europe's natural ally in combating Islamic jihad and upholding civilization.

SWEDEN

Sweden's Impending Moral and Economic Collapse

The once homogeneous, virtually crime-free Sweden, with its cradle to grave benefits, in which the government pampered its citizenry, labeled by many as the so-called "Nordic Paradise," has turned into a hellish reality. The Swedish media won't reveal the extent of the rape epidemic in the country.

TUNISIA

Is there hope for democracy in Tunisia?

The Arab Spring toppled dictators, but all countries except Tunisia returned to violence and authoritarianism. Unlike countries like Syria, Libya, and Yemen, Tunisia took a different path, if not a smooth or complete one. It is a free, independent, sovereign state, based on citizenship, the will of the people, and the supremacy of law. According to the constitution, the people possess sovereignty and are the source of all powers. Women have equal rights and duties. There are limits on executive power, presidential term limits, a constitutional court with power to impeach, and an independent judiciary.

UNITED KINGDOM

A Letter from Tommy Robinson

The shameful, disproportionate incarceration of Tommy Robinson does not prove his guilt, it proves his pen is mightier than their sword. In a sane society, exposing the barbaric Muslim sex-grooming gangs who were raping little English girls would be heroic - not in England. Tommy Robinson exposed Britain's dirtier secret - that the Brits knew about it for two decades and did nothing. So, innocent little English girls were being savagely raped, and the politically correct leadership did not want to offend their Muslim attackers. England is no longer a sane society - it has surrendered to Islam and become a dhimmi nation. Its first casualty was freedom - Tommy Robinson's and hundreds of thousands (not a typo) of little girls across the UK. It is time to free Tommy Robinson and free England from its rape culture!

~ Linda Goudsmit ~

Many of you have been asking of news of Tommy. Here is a letter he has written from prison. We all know why Tommy Robinson is in prison; we don't need to go over each and every point of his political persecution.

Tommy hasn't given up. This absurd politically motivated prosecution, judgment and sentence has only inspired him to fight harder. He wants to fight the established political class and he wants to expose their corruption at the highest level. But to do this, he needs your help.

Please consider helping Tommy in any way financially. This man takes beatings and prison sentences to expose corruption and speak truth to power! We need to support this man, a true hero and leader in the fight against Islamisation and the corruption within our political and judicial system.

Disturbing Reality: Muslim 'Sex-Grooming Gangs'

I think it's the biggest political scandal in 100 years. I don't have any children myself and this is the last thing I ever thought I would do is write a book about this subject," said Peter McLaughlin, author of 'Easy Meat'. I work in IT. I didn't want people to say I was trying to capitalize on this problem so I spent two years writing this book with the purpose of wanting to preserve for future generations the record of what happened.

"It's such a shocking problem," he continued. "The idea that a country would welcome immigrants, offer them every sort of benefit and rights, in some ways superior rights to its own citizens, and then to stand by and let them organize the baiting and prostitution of school girls is just outrageous. If we did not know about this and document it you would not believe it."

UNITED STATES

An Immigrant's American Dream

America is not a white-supremacist country anymore for the simple reason that we don't have an official ideology that promotes the superiority of the white race. Moreover, destroying the idea of the American Dream is also to inhibit the aspirations of immigrants, like myself, who came to America to make something of their lives. And that is very dangerous.

I think the idea that blacks are helpless is quite dangerous, because it leaves in the minds of mainstream society this idea that blacks are wards of the state, that they've never been able to utilise their creative agency to lift themselves out of oppressive situations – situations that have been manufactured primarily, not by private citizens, but by the state. The state has been the biggest enemy of blacks in America, not private citizens.

"Now it is working to impose its agenda on American politics. Why Muslim Friends Betray

There is a third category of Muslims that lurks between "moderates" and "radicals": "sleepers"—Muslims who appear "moderate" but who turn "radical" once circumstances become favorable. For instance, after the Islamic State ("ISIS") entered the Syrian city of Hassakè, prompting a mass exodus of Christians, many otherwise "normal" Muslims joined ranks with ISIS, instantly turning on their long-time Christian neighbors.
