Kinsella firm hired to ‘seek and destroy’ Bernier’s People’s Party, documents show

Warren Kinsella and his Daisy Group consulting firm worked on a secret campaign to “seek and destroy” the fledgling People’s Party of Canada and keep Maxime Bernier out of the national leaders’ debates, The Globe and Mail has learned. Internal Daisy Group records obtained by The Globe show a team of Daisy Group employees worked on a plan called “Project Cactus” that focused on portraying People’s Party supporters as racist.

Bernier files complaint to elections watchdog over 'secret' campaign to smear his party

People's Party of Canada Leader Maxime Bernier has filed a complaint to the Commissioner of Canada Elections to get to the bottom of what he called a "secret" smear campaign waged against him. During a news conference Saturday, Bernier said the party will retain legal advice and will use all tools at its disposal to get answers on the Conservative Party of Canada's potential role in that campaign. He also wants answers on who was behind the entry of a Rhinoceros Party candidate in his Beauce, Que., riding who has the same name as him.

Call to Action: Write to Warren Kinsella about election interference

According to Mr. Kinsella: "I'm proud to oppose bigots like Bernier, paid or not. And the client who wanted to expose and oppose bigotry? They deserve credit, not criticism." And further: "Any of you who are depicting Maxime Bernier as in any way a victim is assisting a racist. You are helping him. You should stop doing that."

If you are disgusted by this insult as well as his interference in the election process, please write or telephone and express your thoughts.

Canada: Muslim students spit on Jewish students, openly express support for Hamas

At York University, Arab and Muslim students began "swearing profanity all over the place" and spitting at Jewish students because they displayed a Zionism sign earlier in October. "Security had to break up angry Palestinian mobs throughout the day because they were screaming at and intimidating Jews." But was that not enough hatred to get members of the "mob" charged? Spitting is assault, and we all know that York University — and society at large — would never tolerate such abuse against Muslims; nor should they. In that event, Prime Minister Trudeau would likely intervene. But why is this abuse tolerated against Jews? Arrests should have been made and expulsions carried out by York University.

The Barbarians Are at The Gates

You don't fully comprehend the enormity and critical importance of the immigration issue in Canada until you have walked through an "Antifa" gauntlet, felt their shoving, heard their deafening and robotic chants and smelled the human feces they have left behind. If you don't believe me, just ask the almost one hundred law-abiding, peaceful people who paid for a ticket to listen to a presentation at UBC on Wednesday evening, October 9. The talk was given by former UNB professor Ricardo Duchesne and Mount Royal University Professor Mark Hecht. In case you didn't know, "Antifa" is short for "anti-fascists", which is what these hooligans fancy themselves as. It has to be the most inaccurate name of the century.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

'The Rise of Jordan Peterson'—A Review

Given today's downward cultural spiral, it's disturbing but not surprising that the makers of a thoughtful new documentary about Jordan Peterson are having a hard time finding somewhere to show their film. Many mainstream and independent cinemas have refused to screen it because they're "fearful of controversy" or "morally concerned." One theater in Toronto cancelled a week-long showing after some of the staff "took issue with it." A theater in Brooklyn cancelled a second screening, despite the fact that the first sold out and received good reviews, "because some staff were offended . . . and felt uncomfortable."

The War Over Words

The issue of language is becoming more and more acrimonious and controversial. One of the key features of the language wars is to make a link between certain words and the rise of hate crimes. This is done through labelling certain words and ideas as forms of 'hate speech'. Once a word is rebranded as an act of hate, it can be discredited on the basis that it encourages violence.

Deplatforming Works: Let's get on with it

In the wake of the 2017 Manchester Arena bombing, then-Prime Minister Theresa May created the Commission for Countering Extremism (CCE), which has predictably turned into a government agency that seeks to weaponize speech against those who dare to criticize disastrous hard left policies, such as unchecked migration. The truth is that any attempt to control "hate" is completely futile and will always result in persecution of political opponents.

LGBTQ

Male-Bodied Rapists Are Being Imprisoned with Women. Why Do so Few People Care?

This is happening in Canada even if most Canadians have no idea about it. The people who live in prison, including female prisoners, have very little constituency among politicians or journalists. The media reports on this issue rarely.

In the UK, currently 1 in 50 male prisoners are now claiming to be a woman. There is every reason to assume that the needless danger facing these women will only escalate as more male prisoners become aware of this "self-ID" escape hatch. Meanwhile, we women are dismissed or berated as "transphobes" when we voice concerns. It's a scandal that is now in plain sight. No woman should tolerate this appalling situation, and no civilized country should ask her to.

ANTIFA

Time for Patriots to Declare War on Antifa Terrorists

The time for President Trump to take action on ANTIFA in labeling the organization an international terrorist organization is long overdue. It is an international terrorist group, since it also operates in many European countries as well as the United Kingdom aside from the US. ANTIFA is only part of a much larger spiderweb of anti-American terrorist groups, all founded and organized by Barack H. Obama and run via the central organization known as Organizing For Action.

Lewis Hamilton and the unbearable climate change hypocrites

Using natural resources to create vast sporting spectacles is okay with me. I just don't want these people then to turn around and tell the rest of us to give up steak and tuck into quinoa. It's like a king telling a pauper to tighten his belt. The public doesn't take kindly to being told by extravagantly wealthy people that we must drive less, holiday less, eat less meat, and generally live lesser, smaller lives. Get stuffed.

Was this zoologist punished for telling school kids politically incorrect facts about polar bears?

A world-renowned expert in animal bone identification has lost her position at the University of Victoria (UVic), she believes for telling school kids politically incorrect facts about polar bears. Zoologist Dr. Susan Crockford says that, contrary to the claims of environmental activists, polar bears are currently thriving and are at no risk of extinction from climate change. Because her polar bear message conflicts with activist rhetoric, and because activists apparently complained to administrators, her career as an academic researcher has come to an abrupt end.

STEALTH JIHAD

Looks like it isn't only Michigan teachers who are being trained to indoctrinate public school students with Islamic lies and propaganda

There's another lawsuit, this time in Maryland, where high-school students were required to profess the Shahada, the Islamic conversion creed, 'There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is the messenger of Allah.' The school did not allow a Christian student, Caleigh Wood, to opt out, and failed her for refusing to submit. It's interesting that Islam is translated as "submission."

In the training, Christian scriptures are described as being "corrupted" while the holy book of Islam, the Quran was said to contain the "pure" word of God. According to the report, of hundreds of teachers attending the workshop, not one teacher challenged the fabrications about Islam, the disrespect toward Christianity or attacks on America.

<https://barenakedislam.com/2019/10/13/looks-like-it-isnt-only-michigan-teachers-who-are-being-trained-to-indoctrinate-public-school-students-with-islamic-lies-and-propaganda/>

Supreme Court Declines to Hear Case Promoting Islam in Public School

The U.S. Supreme Court declined to review the case of a Christian high school student in Maryland, Caleigh Wood, who, despite threats of receiving a failing grade, refused to deny her faith by making a written profession of the Muslim conversion prayer known as the shahada. The shahada states, "There is no god but Allah and Muhammad is the messenger of Allah."

Many public schools have become hot beds of Islamic propaganda. Teaching Islam in schools has gone far beyond a basic history lesson. Prompted by zealous Islamic activism and emboldened by confusing court decisions, schools are now bending over backwards to promote Islam while at the same time denigrating Christianity.

UNITED NATIONS

Paragon Venezuela joins Sudan, Libya, Mauritania on vaunted UN Human Rights Council

So here we go, Venezuela got elected as a member of the United Nations Human Rights Council, joining with Sudan, Libya, Mauritania and other hellholes to pass judgment about human rights in the West and shield themselves from any criticism coming back at them. All by itself, it's an argument for disbanding this travesty. Death squad dictatorships need representation, too.

Don't send the UN another dime!

We learned that the U.N. may run out of money soon. It appears that some member countries have not paid their dues. Frankly, I hope the U.N. does go broke and ceases to exist. Putting Venezuela on a human rights council is Exhibit A that this is a worthless organization.

SLAVERY

Thousands of Black People Are Still Slaves. So Why Haven't You Heard About Them?

Every day across the African continent, black men, women, and children are captured, bought, and sold into slavery with the Western world paying scant attention. Human rights groups have marched and battled against abuses noticeably less cruel and evil than human bondage, yet no major organization has attempted to free today's black slaves, much less taken meaningful steps to raise awareness about their plight.

AROUND THE WORLD

FRANCE

More Death to Free Speech

In a keynote speech, the journalist Éric Zemmour harshly criticized Islam and the Islamization of France. He described the country's "no-go zones" as "foreign enclaves" in French territory and depicted, as a process of "colonization", the growing presence in France of Muslims who do not integrate. Whoever reads the text of Zemmour's speech on September 28 can see that the speech does not incite discrimination, hatred or violence, and does not make a single racist statement: Islam is not a race, it is a religion.

Outraged Swedish Citizens report Greta Thunberg's parents to Child Services for child abuse

In tandem with a public relations consultant, Greta's mother specifically is said to have exploited her daughter to create mass hysteria and panic about the world ending in a few years due to climate change and global warming. And now Greta is spreading this same mental illness to other children via her mother's damaging influence, which could mean that Greta's mom is unfit to keep Greta in her custody. According to reports, Greta's parents are the subject of a new inquiry into their fitness as parents, as it would seem that they've been abusing their daughter for political and financial gain.

SYRIA

Trump's Syria plan reveals a master strategist in the White House

The actual result hasn't been quite what everyone expected. Erdoğan suddenly understood the box he was in when Trump authorized Treasury secretary Mnuchin to prepare sanctions against Turkey. By themselves, sanctions haven't succeeded much in that part of the world. But in concert with the departure of the U.S., they became a scary signal that Turkey was all by her lonesome. Having steadfastly refused to negotiate, Erdoğan now nervously rang up Trump and asked for an emergency conference. These are the long sought negotiations, brought about by U.S. troops leaving.

Only Donald Trump saw it — just as only Donald Trump got North Korea to the table, forced the Chinese to play fair, and got the Mexicans to handle the immigrant caravans on our southern border. Trump once again exhibits strategic insight not seen in the White House since George Washington.

THE NETHERLANDS

The Netherland Government Leaders Join the UN In Harassing Pastoral Farmers

Woke Dutch farmers, who yesterday staged a second massive revolt against so-called Climate Change restrictions, were once again patently ignored by both local and international media. If the masses don't protect the farmers in their countries, the UN's Agenda 21 will eventually lead to mass starvation. Meanwhile, it's not farmers who governments should be sending in the military, but the UN. Farmers and the cows of the field are not the cause of fictitious global-warming, even though governments backing the UN's Agenda 21 are absurdly blaming them.

UNITED KINGDOM

Finally, a rebellion against Extinction Rebellion

For more than a week now the XR elitists have been disrupting everyday life. They've stopped flights from taking off, preventing people from going on well-earned holidays or visiting loved ones abroad. They've clogged up roads in city centres, irritating cab drivers and people on buses. And they've stormed Smithfield meat market and Billingsgate fish market – smug middle-class vegans lecturing hard-working traders about the correct way to think and live.

The people are rising up against the elites. No, I don't mean Extinction Rebellion. I mean the Rebellion against Extinction Rebellion. Today's clashes on the Tube between the commuting working classes and the time-rich, bourgeois fearmongers of the XR cult is a wonderful illustration of the elitist nature of eco-politics and of rising public fury with the eco-agenda.

London Commuters Drag Global Warming Protester Off Top of Train, Pummel the Crap Out of Him

Well it finally happened. A group of working-class citizens became so fed up with the nonsense of climate change protesters who block traffic, that in England on Thursday an angry mob beat the crap out of members of the left-wing pro-environmental group "Extinction Rebellion." At Canning Station in London, several Extinction Rebellion protesters stood on top of the subway train preventing it from leaving the station. According to Mahitir Pasha, a British journalist, one commuter shouted, 'I need to get to work, I have to feed my kids,' when the protestors initially went up."

Posh climate activists pick wrong working-class train to block

Normal people don't believe in the climate change hysteria react in a normal way when a protester blocks bridges, or jumps on passenger trains. These commuters are being told that they're not the "target," but they're still the victims of the blocked train. These climate protesters aren't targeting the passengers who are doing everything right by taking mass transit, the protesters are filming this disruption to target fundraisers.

Hating Islamic Ideology is a Criminal Offence

Blasphemy laws are drawing closer and closer towards judicial legitimacy here in the UK. Hating Islamic ideology is a criminal offence. Statistical reports have come out that suggest Muslims are targeted in 47% of hate crimes in England and Wales. It's a great talking point for the likes of TellMama and Hope Not Hate who thrive on a "perception" of hatred to stay relevant and well funded. Hate crimes are what drive their business models; they need hate; they must find hate.

LeBron's Sensitivity to the Feelings of Maoists

Mao Zedong is arguably the greatest mass murderer of the Twentieth Century, perhaps in history. He easily eclipses fellow left-wing monsters like Pol Pot, Hitler, and even Stalin in the sheer number of corpses he left in his wake. What LeBron himself may not be well-educated about is the fact that the entire world doesn't revolve around his sneaker contract and the profits that flow from it. He may not understand that the People's Republic of China today is a natural outgrowth of the China which was ruled by the late Mao Zedong.

My Socialist Hell: 20 Years of Decay in Venezuela

Venezuela, my home country, has it all: beautiful and breathtaking landscapes, abundant resources, even unique wonders of nature like the Angel Falls or the Catatumbo Lightning. Yet if you've heard our name in the news recently, it's as the subject of tragedy: toilet paper shortages, desperate people scavenging through garbage to find food for their families, bread lines, a systemic failure of our public utilities, dogs flayed in broad daylight for meat, corruption, lack of proper medicine and health access, weighing stacks of cash, and so much more. It saddens me to say that it's true, all of it, a product of 20 years of socialism.

Today, decent people -- people who abhor Nazism and every other form of evil, left or right; people like Jordan Peterson, Ben Shapiro and Ayaan Hirsi Ali -- are shouted down, threatened, disinvited or never invited to speak at America's universities. Why the 'Woke' Corporations Support China in Hong Kong

The last thing the NBA, Disney, Apple, Nike and the rest of the 'megas' want is competition. What they want is a walled garden tended by a kindly Zen-Communist tyrant who will give them a virgin territory in exchange for a huge slice of the pie to be shared with local political partners. And, of course, slavish devotion to the tyranny of whatever it is the locals believe in, dialectical materialism, the transcendence of gender, which is a small price to pay by people who don't have any principles or believe in anything.

The enemy of my enemy is not my friend: It is an unholy alliance

The enemy of your enemy is not your friend. He may use and abuse you for a period of time, but then will throw you over. The West is involved in the Middle East – not by design, but by acts of war. Sept 11, 2001 began the latest march. And what we need to learn from our actions there is that honour/shame cultures are dangerous.

The ethic of all Muslim countries rests on vengeance; not justice and mercy. And vengeance is never ending. Aristotle wrote that memory is the scribe of the soul. Muslim memory calls for revenge. There are few real Muslim nation states. Most are tribes, not living well together. There is no sense of loyalty up the chain from family, clan, tribe to nation.
