“I am a Canadian, free to speak without fear, free to worship in my own way, free to stand for what I think right, free to oppose what I believe wrong, or free to choose those who shall govern my country. This heritage of freedom I pledge to uphold for myself and all mankind.”

~ John G. Diefenbaker ~

CANADA

It appears the above quote no longer applies to Canadians. Ask Don Cherry.

Farewell Don Cherry & Goodbye to Free Speech in Canada

Let's focus on what Don Cherry did say. He is absolutely right. All Canadians (and he did not single out any one community) should wear poppies to commemorate those who fought for our freedoms.

Fundamentally, these freedoms include the freedom to express an opinion. But this freedom is fast eroding and becoming very selective. It concerns me because this muzzling of free speech brings back memories of living under martial law and dictatorship.

Hockey Broadcaster Don Cherry Keeps His Independence by David Solway

Unlike MacLean, Cherry was not contrite. "I speak the truth and I walk the walk," he said. "I have visited the bases of the troops, been to Afghanistan with our brave soldiers at Christmas, been to cemeteries of our fallen around the world and honoured our fallen troops on Coach's Corner...And it has been an honour to back the fighting men and women in uniform."

<https://pjmedia.com/news-and-politics/hockey-broadcaster-don-cherry-keeps-his-independence/#comments>

This guy said it best !!

I'm an American and I'm just going to leave this here. In 2010 on Christmas Day Don Cherry came to Afghanistan to spend the entire day and night with the Soldiers. He spent the day traveling to several remote outposts where Canadians and Americans were emplaced. He came under enemy fire 3 separate times during the day and evening and refused to leave the Soldiers when he was advised to. He ate our shitty dinners with us and talked to all of us. No other "celebrity" came that entire year. He built us a hockey rink and provided all of the equipment. He is just a passionate patriot that wants everyone to care as much as he does.

Don Cherry is right

Our media consists of a delusional collection of hacks who have arrogantly appointed themselves to be Canada's Supreme Court (Canada's arbiter of what is right and wrong.) In fact, the media have actually convinced themselves that they have the right to judge everyone according to the media's cowardly and quisling standards. Let us repeat: Our media are cowards and quislings. Specifically, and importantly, according to our media, no one should be allowed to criticize Canada's mass immigration intake.

Canadian hockey icon Don Cherry fired over on-air remarks criticizing immigrants

The 85-year-old stands by his comments. Cherry told the Toronto Sun, "I know what I said and I meant it. Everybody in Canada should wear a poppy to honour our fallen soldiers." Anything else?

I stand with Don Cherry

These "woke" activists who are calling for Don's head are the same people who said Justin Trudeau's blackface incidents weren't racist. This is just another sad attempt to take down a Canadian patriot. Grapes has hosted Coach's Corner for over 30 seasons. Every Saturday night, Canadians tune in to hear what the Coach has to say. He deserves much better than this. Don Cherry has nothing to apologize for.

My Letter to Sportsnet re: Firing of Hockey Icon Don Cherry

If Don wasn't a Conservative right winger, the extreme outrage perpetuated by our main stream media would never have happened. Don Cherry should be congratulated for having the courage to bring up this unspoken but important issue, not chastised or fired. You at Sportsnet missed a great teaching opportunity and missed the point entirely.

Bobby Orr Defends Don Cherry, says “What They Did to Him Up There Is Disgraceful”

While Ron MacLean and Sportsnet disgracefully threw Don Cherry under the bus, hockey Icon Bobby Orr is defending him. Speaking on the radio, Bobby Orr said "I know Grapes better than anyone. He's not a bigot and he's not a racist. What they did to him up there is disgraceful."

The deadliest sniper of WWI was Francis Pegahmagabow, an Ojibwa soldier

Unlike his fellow soldiers, Pegahmagabow's fight does not end with the armistice. He's a decorated veteran, but when he returns to Canada, he remains an Indian: a "ward of the state," denied the rights of a Canadian citizen. He can't vote, and — as is the case with all First Nations people at the time — almost every aspect of his life, from his ability to leave the reserve to his military pension, is controlled by an Indian Agent, a powerful white bureaucrat assigned to oversee all Indigenous people in his jurisdiction.

Hizb Ut-Tahrir In Canada: Providing the Mood Music to Which the Suicide Bombers Dance

What may be Canada's fastest growing Islamist group believes that all Canadian soldiers are war criminals. The perceived leader of the Canadian arm of the group says publicly that Muslims should not vote in elections unless they are voting for Sharia Law. Hizb ut-Tahrir is able to grow as it has a fluid organizational system and receives considerable practical support from government officials such as the Mayor of Mississauga and the City of Hamilton.

Toronto: Muslim charged with 54 sexual assault-related offenses, including many with children

Toronto Police have announced that Mohammed Naufal Hadi of Toronto has been arrested and charged with 54 sexual assault-related offences. as a part of a sexual assault investigation. Sexual assault occurs in all cultures, but only in Islam does it have divine sanction. One survivor of a

Muslim rape gang in the UK said that her rapists would quote Quran to her, and believed their actions justified by Islam

Traditional Canada is Dead

Here's the thing— Multiculturalism, Immigration, Refugee intake—these are not policies—they are "agendas." Our ruling government has optimized these three policies for a specific purpose— an advancement of power for Third World Canada, and a corresponding disempowerment for the awful "racist" people of Old Stock Canada.

C3RF Update – November 15, 2019

C3RF Update - 15 Nov, 2019 analyses the sacrosanct, unmentionable and unabated "march" of the Left through Canada's institutions. It has now arrived at the doorstep of one of Canada's most revered traditions - Remembrance Day. Not only this, it has managed to take down another institution in the form of a man who had the temerity to defend the act of honouring our fallen - Don Cherry. Will Canadians finally begin to oppose the "march" that aims to separate them from their most treasured values in the form of individual rights and freedoms? Will they finally begin to fight back against the "nattering nabobs of negativity"?

RED-GREEN AXIS

'Anti-Hate' Southern Poverty Law Center Partner
Funds Violent Canadian Antifa

Behind the op-ed was an outfit called the Canadian Anti-Hate Network (CAN), a self-described “hate-monitoring” organization based in Toronto. Not only does CAN model itself on the SPLC, it maintains a partnership with the group, which has included receiving SPLC funding and support. Unsurprisingly, the two appear to follow the same business model. Just like the SPLC, CAN makes inflated and fearmongering claims about the number of threatening “hate groups” operating in Canada.

CAIR and the Rabbis

Recently, the Massachusetts Board of Rabbis (MBR) joined forces with the Hamas front group CAIR (the Council on American Islamic Relations) to picket the Ahavath Torah Congregation in the South Shore town of Stoughton for hosting speakers whom CAIR calls “anti-Muslim hate group leaders.” The scare campaign ended up working. The synagogue had to permanently shut down its speaker series after CAIR and MBR publicized the synagogue’s address on social media. The synagogue’s rabbi, Jonathan Hausman, got death threats and was forced to hire security guards for his family.

Are the Antifa the Brown Shirts of Our Time? By Madeline Weld

More and more, speech that doesn’t conform to the progressive narrative is being silenced as “hate speech” by “anti-fascists,” open borders advocates, or anarchists who can count on the authorities to mostly turn a blind eye to their brown shirt tactics and on the media to shift the blame on those being silenced by designating them as “far right.” Unfortunately for those of us who actually believe in free speech, “hate speech” seems to be a very expandable concept.

Our freedoms are under assault by social justice mobs by Lisa Bildy

It is difficult for any group or individual to find a platform if they dissent from the increasingly narrow range of acceptable speech. Who gets to speak and what they say is being decided by modern-day Brownshirts, some of whom have already demonstrated that they have lost their grip on basic human decency by beating journalists and shouting down little old ladies with walkers.

THE ENVIRONMENT

An Open Letter to Greta Thunberg – A Must Read

The logical endpoint of your ecological vision would see us living in primeval conditions eking out an existence in jungle swamps in which we would regard poisonous snakes and man-eating tigers as our moral equals. We would have to adapt ourselves to nature rather than adapt nature to meet our needs, like all members of civilized civilizations do. Your vision would see us foraging for mushrooms and plants without knowing which were inimical to our digestive systems. Under your system we would swelter from heat, die from rampant plagues and starvation because there will be no air-conditioning units, no sophisticated plumbing and irrigations and sewer systems, no anti-bacterial soap made from animal matter, no pesticides and chemicals to sanitize our food and drinking supplies: just one primordial swamp of human putrefaction.

Mickey Mouse on list of scientists declaring 'global climate emergency'

While fake names appearing on the list such as Mickey Mouse and Albus Dumbledore are worrying, the list didn't stop there, it also included a naturopath, a hypnotist, a commercial business analyst, a psychologist, and an industrial designer, all individuals who wouldn't normally be categorized as scientists.

<https://www.thepostmillennial.com/mickey-mouse-on-list-of-scientists-declaring-global-climate-emergency/>

Who are these '11,000 Concerned Scientists'?

This list contains plenty of "experts" who have zero credibility on the topic of climate change, coming from fields such as infectious diseases, paleontology, ecology, zoology, epidemiology and nutrition, insect ecology, anthropology, computer science, OB-GYN, and linguistics. Bluntly, and no offense intended, I could not care less what a French professor or a zookeeper thinks about climate change — let alone allow him to tell me how to live my life.

The Weaponization of Western Children

To watch the teenage climate-change zealot Greta Thunberg at the UN was a distressing experience. Children are a most potent weapon for a number of reasons. First and most obvious, if you indoctrinate the children into your cause you can potentially produce an entire brainwashed generation of adults. Second, they act as cultural hostages.

ANTI-SEMITISM

Never Again is Now, in Europe and America

Evelyn Marcus and "Never Again is Now" find themselves in an America where Rep. Ilhan Omar, an open bigot, sits in the House, where House Democrats pay court to Louis Farrakhan, where synagogues are shot up by admirers of the Third Reich, and Jewish college students are harassed on campuses by BDS bigots. Evelyn's family had been liberated by American soldiers. But America itself is under siege.

Raheel Raza: I will Not Be PC About Anti-Semitism'

The reason to fight anti-Semitism is that it poses a danger to the democratic societies in which we live. No healthy democratic society can harbor that kind of animus, that kind of hatred and be called a healthy society. The reasons for the rise in anti-Semitism are many but rarely talked about due to political correctness. However, I will.

Anti-Semitism rears its ugly head at McGill University

There is a cancer on our campuses and the Daily is one big reason why it is metastasizing. This is common knowledge. Hand-wringing over the problem has gone on for too long. The time for action, including defunding of the Daily or the establishment of a rival newspaper that receives equal funding, has come.

The Canaries in the Coal Mine

We did not dwell on our victimhood. We did not embitter ourselves with resentment or envy of privileged WASPs. We did not nurse grievances, demand entitlements, or lay guilt upon a new generation for the years of exclusion perpetrated by their parents. We felt gratitude for the considerable opportunities to shape the lives we had. We took satisfaction in our inclusion when it began to happen organically in response to growing enlightenment. Anti-Semitism is a scourge we cope with, because it will always exist. But we have never let utopian dreams of perfection become an enemy of the good.

LGBTQ

Thanks to the LGBT mafia, you can now lose your job for saying that only women can give birth

Lynsey McCarthy-Calvert believes that men with penises can't give birth to children like women with vaginas can, a position that's a major no-no in today's LGBTQP-controlled world. And simply for admitting to these beliefs on social media, McCarthy-Calvert has now been let go from her job, if you can believe it. LGBTQPs are the absolute worst when it comes to engaging in the very things that they falsely accuse others of engaging in against themselves. LGBTQPs have now demonstrated, without any doubt, that they are the true tyrants that need to be overthrown and removed from all positions of influence before they send all the rest of us to the gulags.

AROUND THE WORLD

AUSTRIA

Will Politics Enable a Minority to Impose an Agenda?

Former Austrian Chancellor Sebastian Kurz recognized that the consequences of unfettered mass immigration into Austria during the two years preceding the election had caused a shift in public sentiment. In other words, by the time Austrians went to the polls in 2017, a majority had begun to demand restrictions on immigration, which they considered responsible for the deterioration of their personal security, a disintegration of their social systems and a decline in Austrian cultural norms -- all due to advancing radicalization.

France: An "Inverted Colonization"

On March 12, the imam of al-Aqsa Mosque in Jerusalem announced:

"In 2050, France will be an Islamic country. We believe that Muslims will have a country that will bring Islam, its guidance, its light, its message and its mercy to the people of the West through jihad, for the sake of Allah ... At the time of the Ottoman Empire the Muslims had conquered Poland and Austria, and the call to prayer was recited there; the Islamic nation is able to recover its original identity, and spread Islam, Allah willing. The means at our disposal are the conversion to Islam and the payment of the jizya [protection tax, ed.], or we will ask the help of Allah to fight the infidels".

How Islamists Mark Territory: Is the US Going the Way of Sweden?

The question is, why does the promotion of hijabs as representation of Muslim women or the mushrooming rate of foreign-funded mosques continue to be ignored by the public at large as a risk factor for Islamization? One reason is the inclusion of Islamist personalities and movements into mainstream politics. In America, we have seen the emergence of two such prominent politicians: Ilhan Omar and Rashida Tlaib.

The Ten Reasons I would never, ever vote for a Democrat — and it has nothing to do with Trump

Over my life time I have seen the Democratic Party become the Party of Marx and Mohammed, a growing Red/Green alliance among the Democrat progressive caucus. I have seen the party that elected JFK devolve into the party of BHO. I have witnessed things that I would never have thought possible. Things like: police officers deliberately targeted by black assassins, our schools become propaganda arms of the socialists, our libraries hosting LGBT reading hours for small children, and the likelihood that the Obama administration spied on a duly elected president. Finally, I have seen Democrat candidates for president care more about illegal aliens than American citizens, a party whose platform is based on hating America and those Americans who do not agree with them and their policies.

OK What Are Aliobama And Friends Up to Now

From the outset of his administration, Obama literally embarked upon a mission to encapsulate the United States in a bubble of an irreversible globalist nightmare. Recently Barry Obama conducted a very underhanded meeting at the United Nations. The "former" commander in chief held a meeting with the heads of numerous countries at the United Nations. The main focus of that unauthorized gathering was how to neutralize president Trump politically if he is re-elected in 2020, all at the behest of Obama. Among the nations represented were Canada, Mexico, Lebanon, China Nicaragua, El Salvador, Puerto Rico, Columbia, France, Ecuador, Iran, San Salvador, Haiti, Honduras, Syria, Guam and Guatemala. The last time I checked, exactly before I sat down to write this column, Obama's famous gathering of Trump hating nations is a violation of the Logan Act.

A Great Awakening to the Fight Is Upon Us

One Day You May Have To Pick Up A Sword

The left owns most politicians, the deep state, the news media, academia, our entertainment and social media. They have re-programmed our public schools into institutions of socialist and environmental indoctrination. Liberal colleges are just an extension of that indoctrination. They own the money, the land, the water, the food, the energy, health care and now the weather. They own the street that you live on and the power, water and sewer that service it. They own the cells in your body and the thoughts they put in your brain.

The New Rude by Howard Rotberg

It is hard to tell people things they don't want to hear. In fact, doing so, risks putting you in the group of the "new rude". It's a free country, but it now seems some of us are more free than others. The search for freedom, I am sorry to say, is secondary these days to the demand for equality. People don't want to hear what George Orwell wrote: "In a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act."

The Truth About Muhammad That Uninformed Americans Need to Know

No religious leader has as much influence on his followers as does Muhammad (Peace be upon him) the last Prophet of Islam - and Muhammad as the final messenger of God enjoys pre-eminence when it comes to revelation – the Qur’an – and traditions. So much so that the words, deeds and silences (that which he saw and did not forbid) of Muhammad became an independent source of Islamic law. Muslims, as a part of religious observance, not only obey, but also seek to emulate and imitate their Prophet in every aspect of life. Thus, Muhammad is the medium as well as a source of the divine law.
