

“A society whose citizens refuse to see and investigate the facts, who refuse to believe that their government and their media will routinely lie to them and fabricate a reality contrary to verifiable facts, is a society that chooses and deserves the Police State Dictatorship it is going to get.”

~ Ian Williams Goddard ~

COVID-19

Lockdown. Yes there is fear. Yes there is isolation. Yes there is panic buying. Yes there is sickness. Yes there is even death. But, they say that in Wuhan after so many years of noise, you can hear the birds again. They say that after just a few weeks of quiet, the sky is no longer thick with fumes but blue and grey and clear.

They say that in the streets of Assisi, people are singing to each other across the empty squares, keeping their windows open so that those who are alone may hear the sounds of family around them.

They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland is offering free meals and delivery to the housebound. Today a young woman I know is busy spreading fliers with her number through the neighbourhood so that the elders may have someone to call on.

Today, Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples are preparing to welcome and shelter the homeless, the sick and the weary. All over the world, people are slowing down and reflecting. All over the world people are looking at their neighbours in a new way. All over the world people are waking up to a new reality; to how big we really are. To how little control we really have. To what really matters. To love.

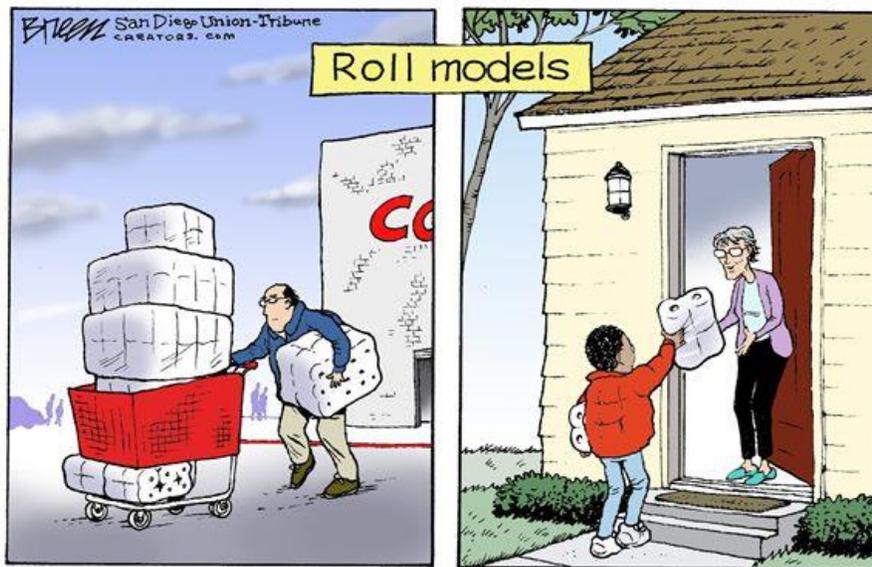

So we pray and we remember that yes, there is fear. But there does not have to be hate. Yes there is isolation. But there does not have to be loneliness. Yes there is panic buying. But there does not have to be meanness. Yes there is sickness. But there does not have to be disease of the soul. Yes there is even death. But there can always be a rebirth of love.

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now. Today, breathe. Listen. Behind the factory noises of your panic, the birds are singing again. The sky is clearing and spring is coming, And we are always encompassed by love. Open the windows of your soul. And though you may not be able to touch across the empty square, sing.

*There have been so many articles written about Covid-19.
Below I believe are some excellent ones to choose from.*

The Plan for the Internal Destruction of the USA was Way Too Easy

Now the world is—quite literally—shutting down. Commerce around the planet is ending due to a cold virus that appears to be—at its worst—less virulent than the [common] flu. Humankind seems to have lost its mind and is, now, going along with its self-immolation. It is, also, providing the globalists with what they have wanted for millennia...total control over humans. And due to said humans going along with the charade and madness, the Luciferian Left is currently winning.

Rahm's Rule and the Fourth Coup Attempt

The Russia-collusion coup attempt had failed. The Ukraine quid pro quo coup attempt had failed. The impeachment coup attempt had failed. President Trump's enormously successful America-first policies remained an existential threat to globalism. The coronavirus outbreak presented an extraordinary crisis of opportunity for the increasingly desperate Democrats and their globalist handlers.

The Luxury of Apocalypticism

'I want you to panic', they say. But we don't. And we shouldn't. Apocalypticism is a luxury of the new elites for whom crises are often little more than opportunities for the expression of their decadent disdain for modern society. To the rest of us, apocalypticism is a profound problem. It threatens to spread fear in our communities, it causes us to lose our jobs, it mitigates against economic growth, and it harms democracy itself. Resisting the apocalypticism of the comfortable doom-mongers who rule over us is unquestionably the first step to challenging Covid-19 and preserving society for the decades after this illness has wreaked its disgraceful impact.

China Lied And People Died: Chinese Scientists Destroyed Wuhan Coronavirus Evidence in December

The Chinese are to blame for this Wuhan coronavirus pandemic. Their containment methods were laughable, their officials refused to inform the public, and people died. They allowed Wuhan to celebrate Chinese New Year, exposing potentially tens of thousands to the disease. Some five million left the city before they enacted a quarantine. And now we're hearing that they knew about human transmissions. The Wall Street Journal's piece on how this whole international fiasco began all but places the blame where it should rightfully be directed: China.

China's Expulsion of Journalists Proves They Have More to Hide

China continues to lie about a virus that started in their country. They allowed it to spread to the rest of the world by engaging in lethal censorship. People are dead and lives have been destroyed in a matter of days due to a cratering economy. The only question now is how Beijing will be held accountable. This expulsion of reporters, who have been publishing crucial information about the virus, proves China has more to hide.

Time to Hold China Accountable for Unleashing Hell on the World

The West must make China pay dearly for its maleficence. As of December 2019, U.S. debt to China was $1.07 trillion. We can begin the process of just retribution and compensation there. We also have the option of imposing tariffs on China and earmark funds collected from those special tariffs to a selected account aimed at assisting those adversely affected by the Chinese coronavirus. Lastly, the United States must come to the realization that manufacturing jobs must be brought back to America's shores and America must be restored to the manufacturing giant it once was.

Denmark Passes Law Enabling Forced Coronavirus Vaccinations

The emergency law gives authorities sweeping powers to tackle the COVID-19 pandemic and will remain in force until March 2021. Citizens who refuse to be tested for the coronavirus will face fines and potential prison time, and will be prevented from entering shops, grocery stores, public institutions and hospitals while also being restricted from using public transport.

Cheap TVs, Expensive Flu by Ann Coulter

When the pandemic arrived, at least the World Health Organization leapt to action. First step: Find a cure? Develop a vaccine? Demand protections for the elderly? NO! WHO officials got together and worked on coming up with a new name for the "Wuhan virus" that sounded less Asian.

Letter from Toronto: An Infectious Diseases Specialist Reflects on COVID-19

What I am scared about is the loss of reason and wave of fear that has induced the masses of society into a spellbinding spiral of panic, stockpiling obscene quantities of anything that could fill a bomb shelter adequately in a post-apocalyptic world. I implore you all. Temper fear with reason, panic with patience and uncertainty with education. We have an opportunity to learn a great deal about health hygiene and limiting the spread of innumerable transmissible diseases in our society. Let's meet this challenge together in the best spirit of compassion for others, patience, and above all, an unflinching effort to seek truth, facts and knowledge as opposed to conjecture, speculation and catastrophizing.

CANADA

Justin Trudeau's Canada Is Obama's Dream for America by David Solway

If Trudeau had a shred of decency in his nature, he would resign on the instant, as reputable judges recuse themselves in cases of potential conflict of interest. He is simply not up to the task of governing a country. I cannot see how he differs substantially from agents of ruination like Obama or Biden or Sanders or Warren or Buttigieg. If I were asked to cameo the state of affairs in Canada today, I would say, "Canada currently suffers from a triple whammy: the Coronavirus, the rail blockade whose effects are still being felt, and Justin Trudeau. God help us.

Explosive lawsuit by former white supremacist causes tension in Canada's Jewish community by Barbara Kay

In her turbulent first 20 years of life, Elisa, “this wretched little immigrant girl,” as Moore patronizingly referred to her in a 1994 article, survived nightmare scenarios that would have beaten most of us into a craven pulp, a piece of human wreckage forever dependent on the kindness of strangers. That she was able to summon the courage, resilience and empowerment to overcome the unremitting blows dealt by a wretched home, and all that followed, almost always alone, to emerge as a fully functioning, competent, productive human is wonderful and mysterious—almost miraculous.

Huawei Risk is a China Risk: Why Canada Needs to Ban Huawei's Involvement in 5G

Should Canada ban Huawei from its 5G system? Yes, if strategic decisions concerning the safety of our national infrastructure are to be informed by national interest rather than business calculation alone. Proponents of Huawei in Canada have a fixated view that the Chinese tech giant is purely a commercial player. Yet, Huawei's inseparable relationship with the Chinese Communist Party (CCP), its inexplicably rapid growth, and its global track record of predatory behaviour, including repeated allegations of systematic intellectual property theft, tell a different story. Dealing with Huawei is dealing with the Chinese state behind it.

Senators Rubio and Warner tell Trudeau that China's Huawei 5G poses a security risk for Canada

Two prominent Senators on the select intelligence committee asked Canadian President Justin Trudeau to block Chinese telecom company Huawei from providing 5G networks in Canada because they are a "significant security risk." They wrote: "As you are aware, Huawei is not a normal private-sector company. There is ample evidence to suggest that no major Chinese company is independent of the Chinese government and Communist Party – and Huawei is no exception."

C3RF Update –20 March 2020

This week's update sets the Wuhan virus aside for the time-being to discuss two abuses of Canadian free speech that are proceeding apace in plain sight. The first sees a British Columbia court gagging a father who is desperately trying to save his daughter from a life of "transition" regret. The cards are stacked against this parent, and all others, as his supporters are similarly gagged and the Canadian government legislates against him. The second sees the old tropes of "Islamophobia" and racism being wheeled out to chastise a potential leadership candidate from raising questions on the matter of Sharia Law in Canada. Once again, the government has involved itself in this charade through its own Motion M-103 initiative. One wonders, does the Canadian government have a "hate" on for free speech?

The Progression of Transgenderism with Tanya Gaw and Laura-Lynn Tyler Thompson

How did we get here with our kids being told they can swap out being a boy to be a girl? Trudeau has opened the floodgates on gender fluid theory and will imprison those who disagree.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SE11rD4MqOE>

Minors are being indoctrinated at a frightening rate into the trans ideology and now the government has decided to implement a radical ban on therapy. The Bill prohibits parents from bringing their child to counselling and forbids parents themselves to speak to their children about it unless the conversation encourages their child toward a homosexual or trans life. The only therapy condoned is one that involves harmful hormone blockers and sex reassignment surgery. It is reported that BC has also called on the federal government for a ban and supports Bill C-8 which will imprison parents, caregivers and counsellors for up to 5 years if a minor is provided counselling that does not involve transitioning.

THE ENVIRONMENT

The Real Reasons Africa Has Another Locust Plague

It seems nothing will be allowed to get in the way of the UN, EU and environmentalist obsession with climate change as the single greatest threat facing humanity and planet. The 1986-87 plague was truly calamitous. In 1988, The FAO, USAID, USEPA, World Bank, Environmental Defense Fund and other organizations were pushing "all-natural, biological, integrated pest management" practices back then, too. They were totally opposed to the use of dieldrin and other insecticides that actually work.

Philip Haney's Death Not a Suicide

"I don't believe that Phil Haney committed suicide." Rep. King said on the House floor this week. Rep Louis Gohmert, Texas Republican also disbelieved the suicide story. "I'd been concerned about his safety, with all the information he knew and people who could've gotten in trouble." Gohmert and King said Haney carried a thumb drive containing sensitive documents and according to the Washington Times report "that thumb drive is curiously missing."

Haney said the DHS investigated him nine times and revoked his security clearance. The Department of Justice charged that Haney "misused a government computer," charges later dropped. The news that Haney might be returning to DHS would not thrill Obama "wing man" Eric Holder, who has been telling reporters looking into DOJ malfeasance to "shut the hell up."

British Indians: The New Jews by Katie Hopkins

Imagine a national newspaper publishing a cartoon of Ilhan Omar as a grotesque pig, with trotters for hands and a ringed snout where her nose should be. The sky would fall in. Advertisers would boycott the publication in their droves and CAIR (the Council on American-Islamic relations) would claim the scalp (possibly literally) of the editor responsible. Our peaceful Indian community is in the crosshairs of powerful Muslim forces readying themselves for majority rule in the United Kingdom.

European Union: The End?

The EU has invoked the solidarity principle when it comes to receiving migrants: During the 2015 migrant crisis, the EU assigned each EU country a fixed quota of migrants and refugees to accept. In 2017, the EU took Hungary, Poland and the Czech Republic to the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) over their refusal to take migrants.

However, what the coronavirus crisis reveals is that the member states of the European Union will revert to national interests when extreme circumstances call for it. While such revelations may not spell the immediate end of the European Union, they certainly raise questions about the point of an organization that pledges solidarity as a founding principle, but abandons that principle the moment it is most called for.
